She said these are our intellectual STEM champions. She said she would like to take a moment just to recognize this amazing accomplishment. Freeholder Rodriguez called upon Tony Deprince who runs the whole program, to say a few words.

Tony Deprince thanked Freeholder Rodriguez and the Freeholder Board for the recognition. He said they certainly appreciate the support that we get from the Freeholder Board not only for our school district and all of our great programs there, but certainly opportunities like this, that we are able to provide to our students. He said he would also like to thank our Board of Education, our Administration through Ms. Fitzgerald, Ms. Durante our Principal, Mr. Kipers our school Business Administrator. Ms. Fitzgerald said on behalf of Camden County Technical schools and the FIRST team, she would like to thank Freeholder Rodriguez for her support, and all the Freeholders for the support they give to us and to the County all the time.

PROCLAMATION

Freeholder Nash said what's great about this night in presenting these proclamations is that we are actually honoring the youth of our Communities. He said that it is really very powerful and sends a great message about how our schools are doing, how we are doing as parents and guardians, and we are producing the next great generation. He said the next Proclamation falls in line with that, he said since 1911 there have been more than 83 million Boy Scouts who have participated in the Boy Scouts of America program, and of the 83 million young men who have participated only two percent have been able to achieve the highest rank in the Boy Scouts, and that is the rank of Eagle Scout. He said and this young man to my left Brendan Patrick Kain has achieved that rank this year. He said that Brendan has been in the Scouts since 2003 when he was a Tiger Scout and has participated in Gloucester City, East Greenwich, and Oaklyn and has participated and now has reached the rank of Eagle Scout. He said he is a graduate from Gloucester

Catholic Highschool. He said he was able to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout by refurbishing the Lions Rest stop located at the park at Johnsons Boulevard in Gloucester City. He said he constructed new benches, trimmed the trees and shrubs, powerwashed the graffiti of the brick pavers, removed all the old mulch off the flower shrub beds and replaced them with new mulch. He said this rest area is used by dog walkers, joggers and is enjoyed by all the City residents and if you are familiar with Gloucester you know it's the center of fun in that community and this young man took it on his own to do all that work for the benefit of everyone in Gloucester, and anyone who comes to Gloucester. He said on behalf of the Camden County Board of Freeholders and everyone in Gloucester City, and for your parents who are here today we want to congratulate you, and he said he is going to Rowan to study Law and become a Lawyer.

Brendan Patrick Kain said it is interesting they honored a Cub Scout group today as well. He said he started out as a Cub Scout back in First Grade, he said two or three years into the program they did this annual thing called Blue and Gold Ceremony, which included crossing over Cub Scouts to Boy Scouts to the next level. He said at one of those meetings, somebody who had just become Eagle Scout who had gone from Wolf to Eagle spoke. He said he doesn't remember exactly what he was saying in the speech but he remembers thinking to himself Wolf to Eagle, I can beat that. He said it has been a lot of years of great fun, getting to travel and getting to meet a lot of great people in this program, working hard to get to this level. He thanked the Board of Freeholders for honoring this, and for having a great County that he would like to do things like this Eagle Project in. He said it was a lot of work, but he was satisfied because, he was driving by the benches one day and saw a Grandfather sitting on a bench and knew the people were using and enjoying the work he put into the project, and that it was having a positive effect on the community.

Freeholder Nash thanked Brendan and thanked his parents Michael and Mary Kain for doing a remarkable job raising this young man!

He said he also hears from the residents of Camden County, he said she interacts with the Community both in the schools and outside of the classroom and she explains what people are seeing in their Parks. He said Maggie is the Environmental Educator for the Parks Department; she coordinates with the schools and meets with the children, educating them in all things environmental, concentrating on Recycling. He said she conducts walks through the Parks with interested groups during the day, weekends, and even moonlit nights. He said her programs are run out of the Environmental Center, she is part of the Counties Sustainable Team and attends various fairs throughout the County representing our County. He said she is a County Park Naturalist, and speaks at various clubs around the Camden County on the Parks wildlife, botany, outdoor activities, recycling and much more. He said she lives in Mt. Ephraim with her parents, and comes from a large Irish family. He said Maggie has three brothers and thirty-five cousins; she is a member of the Mt. Ephraim Green Team, and the Alliance of New Jersey Environmental Educators. He said she attended North Eastern University in Boston, then transferred to the University of Hawaii where she received an Interdisciplinary Studies Degree in Fiber Arts and Natural Resource Management. He said she also has many interests which include gardening, botany, sewing, yoga and generally any activity outdoors, and he said she is an absolute delight.

Frank Moran said on behalf of the Parks Department he would like to thank Maggie. He said Maggie is certainly a gem and an exceptional employee in the Parks Department, and definitely a rising star. He said some things that weren't mentioned, were that Maggie goes into our public schools in Camden and teaches our children about the recycling, and she has recently been working at Camden Highschool and doing a great job. He said we are greatly appreciative in what she does and thanked her for all her hard work.

Jack Sworaski said he would like to echo what everyone else has already said. He said Maggie is a tremendous asset to us and Environmental Affairs, to the Parks Department, the Office of Sustainability, the 4H Group, and we are glad to have her. He said in only a year and a half she has made a tremendous difference.

Freeholder Nash said to express the appreciation of your community we have a beautiful clock with your name inscribed in it and also a gift card. He thanked her very much!

She said she is honored to mention one of their greatest assets, Camden County Just for Seniors, she said it is one of the greatest assets to our Camden County seniors as well as the great activities. She said they have always had the opportunity to enjoy many great amenities, too numerous to mention all, but the few outstanding ones she noted are: monthly bingo games, great prizes, great luncheons, the great dances held once a month, also jewelry and crafts in Collingswood. She said some newly added activities are bowling, billiards and Tai-chi. She said these are great add-on activities for Camden County seniors. She said always remember "If you don't use it you lose it". She thanked Tom Castellano, Michael and Maureen Bergeron. She said they are very fortunate to have a great Mayor, Mayor Klaus in Barrington Borough and a great Coordinator Eileen Holcombe. She said they also have a great new addition, a bus to take seniors to some activities, to the center and some shopping. She said she would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who makes Camden County "Just for Seniors" so outstanding!

The Director said he would like to thank Sandi, and Maureen, and Tommy Castellano, and Deputy Director McDonnell who helps them with this program. He said as Freeholder Nash mentioned earlier they continue to hold the line on spending, and continue to provide more services especially to seniors and veterans. He said Deputy Director McDonnell does a great job in leading those programs, he said he would like to thank him, and he also said our employees do a great job in implementing those programs.

The Director said seeing no other members of the public, he asked for a motion to close the public hearing. Freeholder Nash made a motion to close the public hearing with a second by Freeholder McDonnell and all Freeholders present voted aye.

Freeholder Rodriguez, said she would like to thank the Mayor and council and Barrington, she said they always do such a fantastic job here. She said it's very evident in the way you walk through the community, how much they appreciate the work that you do. She would like to also thank all of our employees throughout the County, because we do have a great budget, and it is a huge reflection on the amazing work that all of our employees do day in and day out basically with a shrinking budget, because inflation goes up and we are not going at the rate of inflation, so it is a strict budget. She would also like to thank all of our awardees that they had tonight, she wished the Rockies team the best of luck to when they go to St. Louis next week, and she also thanked their leadership who makes it possible for them to compete. She said she would like to remind everyone that May 2nd is the Women's Health Conference a free event sponsored by the County, the Keynote speaker will be Jessica Dean from CBS 3, there are six key workshops, 140 vendors and our theme for this year is Mothers and Daughters. He said they appreciate the hospitality and he would also like to mention a big event on Saturday morning at 10 a.m., at Challenge Grove Park he said they will open the second Miracle League season for disabled folks at the Boundless Field at Challenge Grove Park, Cherry Hill, it starts at 10 a.m. with a ceremony, and the first pitch is after that. He said there are a lot of young and not so young kids out there playing baseball at the beautiful Boundless Field that we were fortunate enough to create. He would like to thank Sandi Kelly and Karen Widner for the great job they did in making that happen, and to our Parks Director Frank Moran who oversaw the construction of the Boundless Field. Director Cappelli, said I would like to mention one more time about the budget. He said for the past several years when you have been in economic decline, in New Jersey and Camden County, he said each year our revenues continue to decrease. He said besides the fact there is a decrease in revenue under leadership of the Deputy Director, and our Administrator, and all the managers that are in the room tonight. He said we have found a way to hold the line on taxes year after year, he said the Deputy Director oversees Administration, he sets the policy, and the folks in this room go out there and make it happen. He said as Freeholder Nash mentioned year after year we provide more services with less money, and that is through the hard work and dedication of our employees in Camden County. He said he would like to thank them for all their hard work they do year in and year out.

The Director asked for a motion to adjourn. Freeholder Nash made a motion with a second by Freeholder Rodriguez and all the Freeholders present voted aye. The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 p.m.
