

CAMDEN COUNTY BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS
FREEHOLDER MEETING
December 20, 2018

Wayne Bryant Community Center
323 E. Charleston Avenue
Lawnside, New Jersey 08045

The meeting was called to order by Director Cappelli at 7:00 p.m.

The Clerk called the roll and the following Freeholders answered:

PRESENT: SUSAN SHIN ANGULO, WILLIAM MOEN, JR., JEFFREY NASH, CARMEN RODRIGUEZ, JONATHAN YOUNG, SR., EDWARD McDONNELL, LOUIS CAPPELLI, JR.

The Director stated that adequate notice of this meeting has been provided in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act.

The Director asked everyone to rise for the Pledge of Allegiance which was led by Chief Richard Wise and the National Anthem which was sung by Jeanine Whetstone.

The Director thanked everyone and asked for a round of applause.

Director Cappelli said the County has large print agendas available from the Clerk for the visually impaired.

The Director welcomed everyone to the meeting of the Camden County Board of Freeholders and said we are very pleased to be in Lawnside. It is the practice of the Board of Freeholders to hold their meeting each month in one of the municipalities outside the County seat of Camden so all members of the public have full access to the meetings of the Board. He said as is our custom, we will begin tonight's meeting with a presentation to the governing body. The Director asked Mayor Wardlow and members of the governing body, as well as Freeholder Rodriguez, to come forward.

The Director said the Freeholders are very pleased to call themselves partners of the governing body of Lawnside. We have been partners with this governing body for a long time and have really accomplished some great things. It's a historic municipality that does a great job of maintaining its historic roots while still looking ahead and being progressive with regard to economic development and maintaining recreation opportunities here in Lawnside. The Director said we are so very proud of the work you have done.

Mayor Wardlow welcomed everyone to the Borough of Lawnside, the most historical area around. The Mayor introduced her President of Council, Mr. Robert Lee, Vice President of Council, Rhonda Wardlow-Hurley, Councilwoman Dawn Wright-McLeod, Councilman Pollard, Councilman DeAbreu, and the newest member on Council, Councilman Wilcox. Mayor Wardlow thanked the Freeholder Board for all that they do for Lawnside because, as they all know, she said she comes running to all of them when she needs help. She wished everyone a happy holiday and a blessed New Year and a healthy one also. The Mayor also mentioned her Senator, who she also goes to, Senator Nilsa Cruz-Perez. She said she appreciates everything everyone does for Lawnside and she wanted the Freeholders to know that her seniors enjoy the bus. They just went to Hard Rock Café. Councilman Lee works for the Hard Rock and he arranged for them to have lunch and get gifts.

On behalf of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Freeholder Rodriguez presented the Mayor with their CDBG award in the amount of $30,000 which has been designated for the Summer Enrichment Program. The programs will help their at-risk and low to moderate income students increase their overall skills, happiness and quality of life by enhancing their social, emotional, physical and recreational functioning of students of all ages. The summer program offers various activities including sports, day trips, mentoring, arts and crafts, and free breakfast and lunch.

PRESENTATION

Director Cappelli said, as we go from town to town and have our meetings, we ask the governing body for the name of a non-profit in town worthy of recognition and a small donation from the Board of Freeholders. The governing body of Lawnside has chosen the Mount Peace Cemetery and asked Yolando Romero to come forward. Mount Peace Cemetery was established in 1890 as a burial place for African Americans. In the mid 1900's the cemetery fell into disarray when its owners went bankrupt. A fire in the office later destroyed all the records and plot maps. In 1978, the late Lloyd Romero, a Lawnside resident, led the community to take on the cemetery as a regular project. He and Bryson Armstead spent countless hours documenting civil war veterans buried in the cemetery. Soon new trustees took over the administration of the cemetery and positive change began to happen. The money from the trust was put into CDs and the interest has helped preserve and improve the cemetery. Mount Peace entered the New Jersey Register of Historic Places in 2008 and the National Register in 2009. In 2013, David Zallie, owner of Shop Rite of Lawnside, joined the Board of Trustees contributing greatly to the cemetery's expenses. Mount Peace Trustee, Neil Butler, along with volunteer groups have maintained the cemetery. Monetary contributions and volunteers keep the cemetery moving forward.

Ms. Romero said Mount Peace needs help. Neil Butler is single-handedly handling the maintenance of the cemetery along with David Zallie's crew but he cannot do it by himself and he is getting up in age. She asked people to just come out and help pick up trash. You don't need permission to do that. Just walk around and pick up trash along Moldy Road. The latest thing to happen this year was on Veterans' Day someone left a life-sized ape under the Mount Peace sign. She said she doesn't know what that meant and she chooses to just ignore it but said we need to be more vigilant about protecting our property.

PRESENTATION

Freeholder Young said, everyone knows that Mayor Wardlow is a giving person. She gives her time, her efforts and her love to this community. She often recommends people for awards and never expects anything in return. Freeholder Young presented the Mayor with a bouquet of flowers. He said, every year the County puts on what is called the Freedom Medal Award. All of the years that this Medal has been given out, Mayor Wardlow has nominated her husband, has nominated her daughter and we went back and looked through the records and no one has ever nominated the Mayor. Tonight, we want to present you with your official recipient letter stating that you will be honored at the next MLK Freedom Medal Award ceremony.

The Mayor said she accepts the award and, very truthfully, she is very humbled. She goes out and begs for everyone in town and for things we need in town. She does not beg for anything for herself. She thanked the Board for the honor and accepted it graciously.

COMMUNITY AWARD

Freeholder Shin Angulo tonight she has the honor of presenting the Community Award to Dr. Cynthia Hall who operates Free Haven Farms. She asked Dr. Hall to come forward. Dr. Hall's husband Micaiah could not be here tonight because he is at their daughter's concert. Free Haven Farms, a one acre homestead farm located in historical Lawnside, New Jersey, is owned and operated by Mr. Micaiah Hall and Dr. Cynthia Hall. The farm was given the original name of the town it calls home (Lawnside) and inspires the owners to continue striving to improve, and even save, the community like our ancestors did so they can distribute and grow quality vegetables all year round. They are currently not growing anything because it is winter but they are composting right now and using the farm 24 hours 7 days a week. Dr. Hall's husband is truly the farmer. Dr. Hall is a full-time professor at West Chester University inspiring other geochemical farmers and testers of soil and environmentalists

Dr. Hall thanked the Board and said she is honored they are being recognized. She thanked Lawnside and the Mayor for recognizing Free Haven Farms and her work, as well as the Council and the residents of the town who support them and their efforts to grow high quality vegetables, to educate our residents and community members about being healthy through eating as well as through physical exercise. Dr. Hall said it is really important not just to eat healthy but as we preach, to eat locally, it is something that isn't talked about a lot, the best thing you can do for yourself is to grow your own food. For residents who can't grow their own food, we are able to provide access to high quality fruits and vegetables during our growing season through the Spring, Summer and Fall.

YOUNG COMMUNITY LEADER

Freeholder Young said that as we travel throughout the County from month to month, we like to acknowledge our youth and say thank you for doing a good job with a Young Community Leader Award. He asked Morgan Bull to come forward. Morgan is a 17-year-old resident of Lawnside, New Jersey and a senior at Haddon Heights High School. She works at the local ShopRite as a cashier while maintaining a 3.0 GPA. Throughout Morgan's high school years, she has been active in field hockey and track. During her freshman year, Morgan was selected the Most Valuable Player on the field hockey team and made First Team All-Conference for three years in track. This year Morgan was voted Homecoming Queen. She has been greatly involved in the school's organizations and clubs in the 4 years she's attended Heights. She started her high school career as the Freshmen Class Representative and is finishing as the Senior Class Secretary. Morgan has also been active in the school's Women's Chorus, Step Team, Concert Band, Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) as well as the Garnet and Gold Society. This young leader is committed to community service. Over the summer, she worked at Lawnside Summer Camp, participated in cleaning up the historic Mount Peace Cemetery, participated in AIDS walks and backpack giveaways with Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated, Girl Scouts, NAACP Youth Camden County East Chapter and Ms. Iron's Summer Music Camp. After graduation, Morgan will pursue a degree in Nursing, specializing in pediatric care, at Norfolk State University.

SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Freeholder Young said it's important for us to change the carbon footprint of our County. Each month we celebrate a "sustainable champ". As we get to December, we like to choose a sustainable champion of the year. Freeholder Young said the sustainable champion of the year for 2018 is Sustainable South Jersey. Sustainable South Jersey, formerly known as Sustainable Cherry Hill, is a non-profit community outreach and education organization that fosters the global sustainability movement at the local level. With a mission to "Drive sustainability in South Jersey to benefit our collective future", they have been educating residents for the past decade about how sustainability impacts all of us every day. The name change reflects their ever-broadening reach across our region. Sustainable South Jersey has connected with tens of thousands of Camden County residents through various outreach events such as the Cherry Hill Earth festival that attracts 5,000 attendees every year, advocacy initiatives, and Sustainable South Jersey Meetups designed to connect people in their local communities around sustainability issues. In addition, they promote sustainability through a grant program to financially support green initiatives in our region. For all of these achievements, we are proud to recognize Sustainable South Jersey as our Camden County Sustainability Champion of the Year.

Caren Kauffman said she is on the Board of Sustainable Cherry Hill and, Ed Cohen and Mike Moore, also board members, are in attendance as well. As Freeholder Young mentioned, we are an old and a new organization because we have been around as Sustainable Cherry Hill for 10 years and we have just developed our new identity into Sustainable South Jersey and we want to expand our reach and make a purposeful connection with other environmental groups around the whole region. One of the new things for our new identity is the fact that we are going to have a grant program. We really want to see people take action in their communities whether it is through developing a community garden or having electric vehicle charging stations or anything that you can imagine that might help our environment, we have some money to provide grants. You can go to our website, sustainabilitysouthjersey.org, you will see the button to push to start the application process. We would love to have people reach out to us from all communities in the region. Caren thanked the Board of Freeholders for the wonderful honor. Freeholder Young invited Chris Waldron to come up and join the group for a picture. He said Chris is the Director of our Program and has done a really great job. We are the only county in the State of New Jersey who has a sustainable department.

PROCLAMATION

Freeholder Moen asked Lilly Parker to please come forward. Lilly is accompanied by her parents, Jeff and Lynn Parker. Lilly was featured three weeks ago in the Courier for something very special. Lilly is a 5-year-old from Stratford. At 3 years, old she began helping her dad deliver autumn mums to neighbors. The same year she and her dad began a holiday tradition of bringing their close neighbors a poinsettia after Thanksgiving. Their poinsettia deliveries increased after the first year because Lilly wanted to go to all the houses with holiday cards. She signed 28 cards and delivered them with the poinsettias. Now 5 years old, Lilly enjoys crafts, dance class and going for walks in the neighborhood. Every year she is more excited about the holidays as she looks forward to giving the annual gift and card. This year the whole block and part of the next block received a gift from Lilly. Her parents hope that the tradition will teach Lilly to be a good neighbor. This kind gesture is already teaching Lilly to look out for her neighbors. Her deliveries bring big smiles while warming the hearts of everyone who receives one during the holiday season. The Freeholder Board felt it appropriate during this holiday season of giving to really highlight the local and special person in Lilly Parker. On behalf of the Freeholder Board, Lilly, Freeholder Moen said we would like to present this proclamation to you to hang on your wall. Congratulations.

Lilly thanked the Freeholders. Lynn Parker said, on behalf of Lilly, thank you for listening to her story and for everyone who made this happens. Mrs. Parker thanked Lilly's teachers for coming out and seeing Lilly develop into a wonderful little girl. We are very proud.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Freeholder Nash said he has the great honor of identifying and recognizing the one employee in Camden County who, from the 2,000 or 3,000 employees of our great County, has been recognized as our employee of the month. Freeholder Nash said it gives him great pleasure to introduce everyone to Mike Procajlo. Now when I tell you why Michael has been identified and recognized today, you will understand why he is the employee of the month. On occasion, you will probably notice during the spring and summer months a mosquito or two. You would be noticing many more mosquitoes if it wasn't for Michael and his team. Michael is one of the primary workers at our Mosquito Commission. The County has one of the most progressive and innovative anti-mosquito organizations in the entire State of New Jersey and they are recognizing Southern New Jersey as the premier mosquito fighting force. Michael has worked for the Mosquito Commission for 19 years. Mike was born in Philadelphia and attended Roman Catholic High School. Mike enjoys hunting, fishing, gardening, concerts at the Scottish Rite and loves to spend time with his family. Mike is married to MaryAnn and they have 3 children and 2 grandchildren, Layla and Grant. Mike takes his responsibilities with his work very seriously and is highly respected among his peers. Freeholder Nash said, the one innovative factor that people do not know about our mosquito commission is that Mike and his team have organized a fighting force of fish, so rather than treat many of the ponds and other breeding grounds of mosquitoes, Mike has developed a process where they will put mosquito-eating fish in our ponds and they are the ones that take care of the mosquitoes. It has grown so large, over 200,000 fish that are brought to Camden County in four different tanks from all over Southern New Jersey. In addition, Mike and his team respond to over 650 complaints and they go around the County spraying over 3 times a year. It is because of Mike and his work that we have a control over a very serious and growing problem. Freeholder Nash said, for all you have done for 19 years, I am pleased to recognize you as the employee of the month.

154. Resolution authorizing personnel actions requested by or on behalf of Director Cappelli.

RESOLUTION 155

NO MOTION MADE – FAILED

Director Cappelli opened the meeting to any member of the public who wished to address the Board of Freeholders. The Director declared the hearing open.

Les Paschal, CEO of CFG Health Systems. Mr. Paschal said in the spirit of continuing what has already begun tonight, i.e. showing appreciation, I would like to thank you for allowing our organization to be a part of what is a very significant commitment on the part of the Freeholders and the Administration in Camden County to the youth. You are raising the program bar, you are raising the clinical intervention bar for the youth at the Camden County's Youth Center in a way that will benefit them in the long run and also will be a shining star for you to move forward. Mr. Paschal said it would be remiss for him not to acknowledge a young woman who is the Director of the Corrections facility. Karen, I would like to point out to you that what you may not realize is that in the State of New Jersey there are 12 corrections facilities. These 12 corrections facilities house about 20,000 folks. Each year they process around 9,000 people for intake which means evaluating for security classification, behavioral health, planning etc. 9,000. Remember that number. She runs a facility that processes 12,300 a year on steroids. Not all is in the numbers either as Director Taylor can tell you. The State get folks handed to them on a silver platter. Camden County has to deal with significant security issues because the folks have not been detained. In terms of health care and behavior health care services, sometimes this is the first health care they have ever received. I would be remiss to not show appreciation for the work that you do and also the work that Director Owens has contributed for God only knows how many years. It is a good day in the words of Freeholder Young, you know it's a good day when your constituents are waving at you using all five fingers. Thank you very very much on behalf of my team.

Seeing no other members of the public wishing to comment, Director Cappelli asked for a motion to close the public hearing. Deputy Director McDonnell made a motion with a second by Freeholder Shin Angulo and all Freeholders voted aye.

The Director opened the floor to the members of the Board of Freeholders for their comments.

Freeholder Rodriguez began by thanking the Mayor and Council for welcoming us to your wonderful town. Lawnside is very historic. It is a place where we can come and learn so much, historically. I know in the Historical Society we recently had the Moore family display. That was a phenomenal display. Freeholder Rodriguez also acknowledged the employees of Camden County who make our jobs possible, as well as her directors. They do such a fantastic job in everything they do. Always communicating and making surely everything is timely and done well sand that we provide the absolute best service possible. Without them our jobs would be extremely difficult. Thank you for making my job so easy. Freeholder Rodriguez wished everyone a happy holiday and a Happy New Year. Enjoy and be safe and be with your family.

Freeholder Young thanked Mayor and Council for hosting the meeting and for staying until the end of the meeting. He wished everyone happy holidays and said it is his favorite time of year. He enjoys family and loves family. Freeholder Young said we take so much for granted on how public safety works and how our first responders work. Last night an 8-year-old boy went missing in the City of Camden. This morning they continued the search. We had the mobile command out, Polaris, State Troopers with helicopters and everything. We sit down and do drills but to really see them in pure action is something else. I drove down there and jumped into the mobile command to hear them go through the planning and everything they have been trained for and in the end to find the kid. That was a blessing. Freeholder Young said he just wanted to say kudos to the public safety family that was involved, State Police, Prosecutor's Office, Camden Fire Department, OEM, dispatchers, and Camden Metro. Also, kudos to Warden Taylor and our folks at Corrections. Today we do what we do every year, our corrections officers are outstanding. They pulled up to the Larc School with two vans full of toys and Santa Claus for the special needs kids. To see the smiles on these kids' faces was really special. The Animal Shelter is doing great this year. 4,094 pets have found homes this year. We have 93% save rate as well. Happy Holidays. Be safe.

Freeholder Nash said, first to the Mayor, I want to congratulate you on being recognized with the Martin Luther King Freedom Medal. We have been friends for a long time, since we were in high school, but I cannot think of anyone who is more worthy of receiving that recognition given your work in the community for so many years. Congratulations. Freeholder Nash expressed his appreciation to the departments that he serves as liaison to. The Parks Department. Freeholder Nash said he is very proud of the work that Parks did this year. The parks are outstanding. It was under the direction of a new Director, Maggie McCann-Johns who did a great job under the mentorship of Dominic Vesper. Dominic, thank you so much for taking her under your wing. To the men and women of Environmental Services, they do a great job as you heard a little part of it with the Mosquito Commission and the work that they do. There is so much work that is done with the Open Space Advisory Committee that gives grants for open space and recreation and historical structures. They do a great job and of course the men and woman at the CCMUA, the PCFA and the other organizations that I oversee, I want to thank them and wish everyone a very happy and healthy New Year.

Freeholder Shin Angulo congratulated the Mayor. Thank you to the Council members who are here and for staying. It is such a great moment, especially our last meeting to be here in Lawnside. It's like being home. Thank you for your welcome. Tomorrow is the first day of winter and tis the season, there is going to be snow. I know it is going to be 60 tomorrow and it is pouring rain but I still want to make sure that everyone drives safely because safety is paramount to this County. Freeholder Shin Angulo thanked Dominic Vesper and John Wolick, as well as the County Engineer, Kevin Becica. Thank you for all you do to make my work easy and fun. It is a joy working with you all. Thank you for Janina Robinson, my aide, who has been my right-hand person throughout the year. Merry Christmas and a joyous New Year.

Freeholder Moen echoed his colleagues in thanking the Borough for having us this evening. He recognized Magnolia Mayor, Betty Ann Cowling Carson. As you go throughout the year at different events in Lawnside and Magnolia, reorganizations, Freeholder meetings, the line gets blurry. You forget what town you are in because they support each other so much. I think it is one of the rare instances in New Jersey where there is a partnership for use. Freeholder Moen thanked all of the County employees, especially the ones he has the honor of serving as liaison to. The Freeholder gave a shout out to the Department of Buildings and Operations. He also recognized the representative from the library system, David Lisa. The County of Camden's Veteran's Affairs Department. I can report to the Board that today we had our first convening meeting of the County's efforts to honor our Vietnam Veterans as the 50th anniversary rolls around. I think this is going to put us in the front of the pack in the State in terms of how we say thank you. There is probably a portion of our veteran community that didn't get it enough. He thanked Frank Filipek and his team for partnering with Veterans Affairs. I think we will be holding a very big event that many people will be proud of in the Spring. Finally, Happy Holidays and best wishes for 2019. Go Eagles!

Deputy Director McDonnell congratulated the Mayor and said he cannot think of anyone more worthy of that Martin Luther King medal than you. He thanked Council for attending and staying for the whole meeting. The Deputy Director thanked Jon Young and Karen Taylor. For every year they have been coming to Larc School for our disabled children. They make a wonderful fanfare out of it. It is a thrilling day for staff. To all our employees in Camden County, thank you for everything you do all year for the citizens of Camden County and I hope everyone has a wonderful Holiday season.

Director Cappelli said early this week we had two of our police officers responding to a spotshotter alarm and became involved in a very serious accident. They both sustained very serious injuries and have undergone surgery; Officers Ortiz and Brown. Please keep them and their families in your thoughts and prayers. We had another officer respond to a fire this morning who has some minor injuries and ended up in the hospital. We have a firefighter in Camden injured in that fire. To all of our first responders, please keep them in your thoughts and prayers. Sometimes we forget about how dangerous their jobs are until incidents like this happen. We appreciate all of the great work they do. The Director congratulated the Mayor and said he cannot think of a more deserving person than she. To all of the employees in the County and its agencies, 2018 was a tremendous year Thank you for all of your hard work, ideas and dedication to our residents in Camden County. Happy Holidays and Happy New Year.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Karyn Gilmore
Clerk of the Board
