

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA)

In September 2003, Congress enacted the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA). The purpose of the act is to establish a zero-tolerance standard regarding sexual abuse and sexual harassment of offenders within a correctional setting. PREA applies to all federal, state and local prisons, jails, lockups, private institutions and community residential facilities. PREA addresses all types of sexual misconduct in which an offender is the victim, including abuse by fellow offenders as well as sexual misconduct committed by staff.

Sexual abuse and sexual harassment in correctional institutions affects offenders, staff and even the public.

The act established a national panel to develop a set of national standards and required the U.S. Attorney General to review and publish a final set of PREA Standards.

Sexual Harassment:

Repeated and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or verbal comments, gestures, or actions of a derogatory or offensive sexual nature directed toward another

Sexual Abuse:

Sexual abuse of a resident by another resident; and
Sexual abuse of a resident by a staff member, contractor, or volunteer

Includes any of the following acts : if the victim does not consent, is coerced into such act by overt or implied threats of violence, or is unable to consent or refuse. Any other intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks of any person, excluding contact incidental to a physical altercation.

Sexual Assault:

Penetration of the anal or genital opening, however slight, by a hand, finger, object, or other instrument, that is unrelated to official duties or where the staff member, contractor, or volunteer has the intent to abuse, arouse, or gratify sexual desire
