PUBLIC/SPECIAL EVENTS RULES-Do Not Return With Permit

1. The permit holder will be responsible for insuring the grounds are left clean and in "as found" condition. When available, every effort should be made to utilize the recycling cans. Bags of trash should be left piled adjacent to trash/recycling cans.
2. Portable toilet for general park use are located throughout the parks and are cleaned on a regular basis. When an event has the potential to impact heavily on these units, the permit holder may be responsible for cleaning the existing units prior to the event and every day of the event and/or for providing additional portable toilets for events attracting 100 or more and for cleaning these units every day of the event. A minimum of one additional unit per every 100 people may be required, depending on location, length of program, other available facilities, etc. The Department of Parks will determine the required number of units. The schedule of available park units is available upon request.
3. If the County is co-sponsor, all printed materials are to be approved in advance by Camden County.
4. All merchandise and food vendors must be approved by Camden County prior to the event. Permit holder must obtain a list of insurance and inspection requirements from the office of Special Events or permit holder may request "pre-approved" vendor list.
5. Permit holder is responsible for securing all permits required from the Camden County Fire Marshal's Office, this includes tents larger than 10 X10, and cooking operations using propane (not required for charcoal). All costs shall be borne by the permit holder. Permitting with the Fire Marshal's Office will take approximately two weeks. Camden County Fire Marshal-(856) 374-6176.
6. The location of all staging and tents must be approved by the office of Special Events prior to event. No use of amplified public address systems prior to 9:00 am. This includes bullhorns.
7. The Camden County Division of Special Events reserves the option to require one or more Sheriff's Officers or Park Ambassadors at said event, with all costs borne by the permit holder. The Police and/or Special Events Coordinator shall determine the number of officers required and/or make other arrangements.
8. The County reserves the right to cancel and/or terminate a program if we determine that there is a clear and present health or safety danger to the public.
9. Failure to comply with all requirements and scheduling deadlines may result in denial to use the park.
10. Permit fees are not refundable. If your event is canceled, postponed or rained out, fees can be applied to a future date if rescheduled within the calendar year.
11. Fees for police coverage, electricity, labor and equipment are additional and will be determined upon review of each individual application.
12. Event signs can only be posted the morning of the event and must be removed immediately following the end of the event. Any signs put up prior to day of event and left after the event will be removed by park staff.
