Camden, Cherry Hill, Collingswood, Haddonfield, Haddon Township, and Pennsauken

MAY 8, 2017 • 6:00PM - 8:00PM

CAMDEN COUNTY BOATHOUSE
7050 North Park Drive, Pennsauken, NJ 08109

Hosted by the Camden County Board of Freeholders

Freeholder Jonathan L. Young, Sr.

- Opportunity for local businesses to network with their elected officials and public safety leaders from their towns and the county and engage in an interactive dialogue regarding contemporary public safety concerns and issues.
- Development of a successful private/public partnership to address the planning, preparedness, mitigation, and response to various public safety incidents (mass gatherings, active shooter/hostile event incidents, terrorist events, natural/man-made disasters, and general public safety concerns).
- Creating a collaborative model of communities working together by integrating private and public leaders to communicate regional public safety issues and needs.
- Provide an understanding of the important role our local businesses play in developing a strong community awareness of public safety incidents and how such incidents can impact their business operations.
- Addressing issues of local concern as it relates to your local police, fire, and emergency medical services.
- Panel members will include elected officials and public safety leaders (police, fire, and emergency services chiefs) from Camden, Cherry Hill, Collingswood, Haddonfield, Haddon Township, and Pennsauken.
- Your attendance will have a tremendous impact in assisting your elected officials and public safety leaders to make a positive difference in your communities.
