Addictions Awareness Series

COURSE #: IDY-209-74

INSTRUCTOR: LeRoy Stanford

DAY: Wednesday

TIME: 6:00-8:30pm

LOCATION: Civic Hall

This is an educational series for addictions professionals and aspiring addictions counseling professionals.

February 21 - Transitioning from Recovery to Advocacy & Clinical Practice

Panel Discussion led by Leroy Stanford, Teaching Administrator/Director Addiction Counseling Program. In this workshop, panelists Ed Brazzell (Deeper Dimensions), Mickey Riggins (Cross Roads Behavioral Health), and Ephraim Wilson (Cross Roads) will provide a framework for understanding how and where to begin your transition from one phase of change on a personal level to professional. Time will be devoted to frequently asked questions concerning entering the field from a grassroots perspective.

March 21 - Giving Back: Peer-to-Peer Mentoring

Speaker Kimberly Govak (Program Coordinator, Living Proof Recovery Center) will provide a proven roadmap to success for community members as well as potential helping professionals with a desire to enter the field of human services/addictions.

April 18 - Professional Ethics

Speaker Dr. James Harris (Adjunct Professor, Camden County College) will provide current information about ethical responsibilities and legal considerations for the person seeking to become an addictions counselor or mental health professional.

May 16 - Neuroplasticity

Kapil Nayar (Adjunct Professor, Camden County College and Clinical Supervisor, Liberation Way Treatment Program) will help participants understand the therapy practice of neuroplasticity, including discussion of best practices and available resources.

CEU available – Camden CC is designated as a NJ Professional Development Provider

This series is sponsored by the Camden County College Addictions Counseling Program in partnership with Camden County Department of Health & Human Services, Office of Mental Health & Addictions, and Camden County Addiction Awareness Task Force.

All lectures are free and open to the public and will be on the Blackwood Campus of Camden County College.
