The Camden County Department of Corrections Juvenile Division continually strives to ensure the sexual safety of all residents. In order to provide a safe facility, the Camden County Department of Corrections Juvenile Division has thoroughly investigated the incidents.

2015 “Year in review”

A decision was made to have cameras installed in the educational classrooms, and additional cameras placed in Intake. This project shall be completed by Spring 2016.

Anyone who suspects a resident at the Camden County Department of Corrections Juvenile Division, is being sexually abused or sexually harassed is urged to contact the Administrative Department or any of the third party phone numbers listed in the facility website. A confidential report will be investigated, and if need be, will be forwarded to authorities who will ensure a criminal investigation occurs.

2016 “Year in review”

In compliance with PREA, the Camden County Juvenile Detention Center has a zero-tolerance stance towards all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment and is applicable to residents, staff, volunteers, visitors and contractors.

The zero-tolerance stance includes continued education, measures of prevention, detection and responding to all cases of sexual abuse and sexual harassment incidents immediately.

All residents are prohibited from engaging in sexual contact with each other. All sexual contact between residents is deemed to be non-consensual and consent is not an affirmative defense, due to the custodial

2017 “Year in review”

The Camden County Department of Corrections Juvenile Division is committed to a culture that protects the youth we serve, and continues to invest resources to educate our youth, select and train our staff, improve our procedures, and upgrade our physical plants to support the prevention, detection, reporting and investigating of all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment.
