

REGISTER TODAY!

CARRY NARCAN[®] NOW

Protect from an Overdose

Supported by the Camden County Board of Freeholders Addiction Awareness Task Force.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS AT RISK FOR A HEROIN/ OPIOID OVERDOSE?

The Overdose Prevention Act provides an opportunity for those in a position to help and assist someone during an overdose by administering Naloxone. The law eliminates civil and criminal liability to anyone who administers Naloxone.

Free trainings and education on how to administer Naloxone to reverse a heroin/opioid overdose will be provided in Camden County. Participants who successfully complete the training will receive a free Naloxone kit.

All trainings will be provided by credentialed substance abuse counselors. The trainings are open to the public however, space may be limited. Pre-registration is required.

TRAININGS INCLUDE

- Addiction education and treatment options
- Overdose prevention techniques
- Signs and symptoms of overdose
- Steps to take when an overdose occurs
- Rescue breathing
- How to administer naloxone, self-help, family support, and other important resource information

TRAINING DATES

Trainings are held on the last
Tuesday of each month starting
January through November, 2020.
12:30 PM - 2:30 PM

CAMDEN COUNTY LIBRARY FERRY AVENUE BRANCH

852 Ferry Avenue
Camden, NJ 08104

REGISTER TODAY

Registration is required

To register, contact Patty DiRenzo
at (856) 374-6137 or email
Patty.Direnzo@CamdenCounty.Com

Information regarding treatment options will be available at the training.

Made possible by funding received from the
New Jersey Department of Human Services,
Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services.

A special thank you to our hosts and supporters:

Camden County Addiction Awareness Task Force, Camden County Department of Health and Human Services, and Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School.