PARK EVENTS GUIDE 2022

Presented by the Camden County Board of Commissioners

WELCOME

Camden County Board of Commissioners

Louis Cappelli, Jr., Director

Edward T. McDonnell, Deputy Director

Jeffrey L. Nash Parks Liaison

Carmen G. Rodriguez

Jonathan L. Young, Sr.

Melinda Kane

Al Dyer

The 2022 Park Events Guide is your family's ticket to an amazing season of fun and entertainment. Celebrate Independence Day at the Camden County Freedom Festival at Wiggins Waterfront Park featuring a performance from the O'Jays or check out the cool sounds of the Sundown Music Series at the McLaughlin Norcross Memorial Dell at Haddon Lake Park. From kayaking to exercise classes, horseback riding and more, this summer's lineup of events has something fun for everyone. Whether you want to hang out in a lawn chair or stretch out across a yoga mat, we'll welcome you to the parks this summer.

The Board of Commissioners hopes you'll enjoy everything that Camden County has to offer and we look forward to seeing you, your family, and your friends in the parks.

ANIMAL ALLIANCE OF CAMDEN COUNTY

The Animal Alliance of Camden County was formed in 2011 by five local animal welfare organizations and the Camden County Board of Commissioners to coordinate efforts to better serve the pets and residents of the county. Member organizations work together to improve the well-being of companion animals and their owners in the community, including joint efforts such as adoption events, spay/neuter partnerships, and transporting animals in need to reduce populations.

WHAT IS PARKS ALIVE 2025?

Parks Alive 2025 is a collection of priority park development projects over the next several years that reinvest in invaluable park features and reimagine our spaces to increase both active and passive amenities for residents and visitors. The $100 million investment and plan addresses everything from critical environmental improvements, ADA and Universal Design enhancements, and improved safety and security measures to new equipment, facility upgrades, and so much more. Camden County is the place, and this is the plan to make our parks system work for everyone.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR OUR COMMUNITY?

The improvements and projects of Parks Alive 2025 will have a direct impact on many facets of life in Camden County from social and ecological to wellness and financial health. The benefits and offerings of our parks system, both seen and unseen, will lift up our communities now and for the future.

COOPERNORCROSS
RUN THE BRIDGE
presented by AmeriHealth New Jersey

to benefit LarcSchool

November 6
Ben Franklin Bridge

All proceeds from the Cooper Norcross Run the Bridge Event benefit the children of Larc School. Larc School provides services to hundreds of individuals with severe disabilities throughout South Jersey -- at no cost to the families.

This 10K begins at the base of the Ben Franklin Bridge on the New Jersey side, crosses the bridge, doubles back, takes you through the waterfront area and finishes at Rutgers University - Camden. A two-mile bridge walk immediately follows the start of the run. A kids event takes place during the race.
